House: Routine business.Washington, March 3.—With Senator La Follette, progressive leader, in the background, the senate committee named to investigate Attorney General Daugherty's administration of the department of justice, met today to plan its inquiry.Regarding the investigation as a trial to himself, Daugherty, through counsel, has demanded that it be conducted exactly like a court trial, and that he be permitted to subpoena defense witnesses.Congressional committees never permit principals being investigated to summon witnesses in their own defense, and in most cases refuse even to permit cross-examination of committee witnesses.Daugherty has demanded the right to do both. The committee may reply to him that the senate has not authorized the committee to try him, but merely investigate his whole administration of the department.In mapping a course of investigation, first place will be given to a scrutiny of the activities of the bureau of investigation, of which William J. Burns is head. The progressives have wanted to subject that agency to a checkup ever since the war and now that they have the chance, they will lose no time.
Daugherty, who is in Florida, will not appear personally in the early stages of the investigation.BURNS CITED TO had deciphered the message substantially as that of a previous translation, and established the fact that the messages are in the department of justice code.The expert will be called on the stand as the first witness tomorrow to tell these things, and Burns will then be called on to explain how Mc-Lean got the department's secret code.Walsh will also question Mrs. W.

principles of "common honesty," Josephus Daniels, former secre-

his former chief, Woodrow Wilson.The former navy secretary declinplorable truth."The conscientious republicans and honest democrats must right this wrong or the government will not be honest men in the government, of

Rev. H. E. Griffin, pastor of the illustrate his talk on "The Kind of a Girl to Marry."A framework of flowers and tissue paper lattice work was arranged over during the pastor's talk.First there was the languorous society girl in an evening gown. Appearances, however, might be deceivyears for something more than mere frivolity, Rev. Griffin said.Then a girl in an apron with a pig in her hand stepped into the bower.

She made a pretty picture of domesti-said. "Don't judge them by their well informed source.Mr. MacDonald's letter and Premier Poincare's reply, which will be made public soon, contain startling new policies regarding the two most vital questions in European politics

—reparations and French security.Regarding reparations, Mr. Mac-Donald's letter expresses hope that the result of the expert's inquiry will be the basis of a general settlement which will lead to the possibility of cancelling the inter-allied debt, the correspondent is informed.Regarding French security, Mr.
MacDonald believes security for France and all of Europe could be obtained if some part of the German territory—obviously the right bank of the Rhine—could be neutralized or placed under control of the League of Nations. The British prime minister says he wants a general settlement of the questions of security and reparations, which vitally concern the relations of Great Britain and France.The correspondent learns that Premier Poincare's letter in reply expresses the strongest sympathy with Mr. MacDonald's ideas on reparations and debts and also agrees in principle to the Rhineland suggestion, while pointing out that France never had the idea of annexing any German territory.The MacDonald-Poincare exchange of letters is expected to strengthen

Chicago, March 3.—Living models were used last night by Rev. H. E. Griffin, pastor of the Rogers Park Baptist church, to illustrate his talk on "The Kind of a Girl to Marry."

A framework of flowers and tissue paper lattice work was arranged over the baptistry. The lights were dimmed and spotlights played on the bower as five girls took their turn during the pastor's talk.

First there was the languorous society girl in an evening gown. Appearance, however, might be deceiving, and the society girl probably yearns for something more than mere frivolity, Rev. Griffin said.

Then a girl in an apron with a pin in her hand stepped into the bower. She made a pretty picture of domesticity, Rev. Griffin said, but the apparently home-loving girl may long for a stage career.

Then there was the athletic girl in a sweater, and then the student girl in a gown and cap and the business girl in a tailored suit.

"The only way to decide on a life companion is to know the girl's desires, ambitions and longings," he said. "Don't judge them by their looks alone."

MILFORD MINE DISASTER TO BE INVESTIGATED

GOVERNOR PREUS TO APPOINT COMMITTEE WEDNESDAY

CONFERS WITH OFFICERS OF THE STATE FEDERATION OF LABOR

(By United Press)

St. Paul, March 3.—Governor J. A. O. Preus will name the committee to investigate the Milford mine disaster on Wednesday. He conferred with E. H. Hall and George Larson, president and secretary of the state federation of labor, this morning and decided that out of courtesy to the federated trades assembly to Duluth, which asked the investigation, he would wait until Wednesday when he will be in Duluth to name the committee. Mr. Hall will probably be one member of the committee, and the other will be a representative of the Duluth labor board.

When water filled the shaft of the mine February 5th, 41 miners were entombed.

Governor Preus will go to Duluth to address a meeting of the forest rangers which he is scheduled to address.

SUPREME COURT RULES ON LIQUOR STORED IN HOME

(By United Press)

Washington, March 3.—The supreme court today held that the action of the Idaho prohibition laws prohibiting a person from possession of liquor in his home without a permit was valid.

The case came to the supreme court on appeal of Raymond Moore, for conviction for the possession of liquor for his own use, in his own home, contrary to the prohibition laws of Idaho. Counsel for Moore contended that the Idaho law was invalid and unconstitutional, in that it prohibited an act especially declared lawful by the Volstead act.

MACDONALD URGES DEBT CANCELLATION

PREMIER FAVORS NEUTRALIZATION OF THE RHINE-LAND

Paris, March 3.—Cancellation of inter-allied debts and neutralization of League of Nations control of the Rhineland is suggested in Prime Minister MacDonald's recent letter to Premier Poincare, it was learned from a well informed source.

Mr. MacDonald's letter and Premier Poincare's reply, which will be made public soon, contain startling new policies regarding the two most vital questions in European politics—reparations and French security.

Regarding reparations, Mr. MacDonald's letter expresses hope that the result of the expert's inquiry will be the basis of a general settlement which will lead to the possibility of cancelling the inter-allied debt, the correspondent is informed.

Regarding French security, Mr. MacDonald believes security for France and all of Europe could be obtained if some part of the German territory—obviously the right bank of the Rhine—could be neutralized or placed under control of the League of Nations. The British prime minister says he wants a general settlement of the questions of security and reparations, which vitally concern the relations of Great Britain and France.

The correspondent learns that Premier Poincare's letter in reply expresses the strongest sympathy with Mr. MacDonald's ideas on reparations and debts and also agrees in principle to the Rhineland suggestion, while pointing out that France never had the idea of annexing any German territory.

The MacDonald-Poincare exchange of letters is expected to strengthen the falling franc and open the way to a premiers' conference, somewhat restoring the Anglo-French entente.

CARBON MONOXIDE GAS KILLED TWO

DEATHS MEETS TRYST OF MRS. ANNA TANZER AND FRANK WAGNER

(By United Press)

St. Paul, March 3.—Carbon monoxide gas killed Mrs. Anna Tanzer, 23, and Frank Wagner, 28, at their trysting place — Wagner's private garage. They had been missing a week.

Bodies of the pair were found today after Miss Elizabeth Speltzman, friend of the young matron, told of dreaming Saturday night that the two were found in a small cottage. Brothers of Wagner went to the garage and found the bodies. Police said the couple apparently had been sitting in the car and left the motor running to keep warm. Their clothing was disarranged.

Two wine glasses were found, but they did not smell of liquor. Wagner had been staying at Crystal Lake and his brothers, Charles and Anthony, did not notice his absence.

Berlin, March 3.—It is announced that the "Almanach de Gotha," the record of the royal and princely houses of the world, will continue to be published in spite of the growing scarcity of material, due to after-the-war causes. The current issue is late, due to troubles in Germany.

SAPIRO, EXPERT, JUBILANT OVER STATE SHOWING

MINNESOTA HAS FOUR TIMES AS MANY MEMBERS, THREE TIMES MAINE ACREAGE

MINNESOTA HAS 12,000 GROWERS SIGNED WITH MORE THAN 155,000 ACRES

(By United Press)

St. Paul, March 3.—Minnesota has exceeded all other states in contracts for cooperative marketing of potatoes.

Aaron Sapiro, co-operative marketing expert, said that Minnesota has four times as many members, and three times the acreage of the Maine potato growers' exchange, which heretofore was the largest co-operative potato marketing body in the world.

Minnesota has 12,000 growers signed with more than 155,000 acres. The goal for the championship, which was set at 120,000 acres, was started three months ago. This is half of the commercial acreage of the state.

The executive committee of the Minnesota Potato Growers Exchange met with Sapiro here today to organize the members into 31 county potato associations. The county associations will handle their own products under the direction of the state organization.

The exchange is organized on the basis of five-year contracts and will not be cancellable. Members agree to deliver to the association all the potatoes grown except those needed for seed and immediate local consumption.

Congressional district conventions will elect two delegates to attend the republican national convention in Cleveland in June. The state convention will name seven delegates at large from Minnesota to attend at Cleveland. In May the matter of endorsing the legislative candidates will be taken up.

"KILL THE BANDITS," BUTLER COMMANDS

MURDER PROMPTS PHILADELPHIA SAFETY DIRECTOR TO PUT POLICE ON 24 HR. DAY

Philadelphia, March 3.—General Smedley Butler has ordered a 24 hour day for the police Saturday, following reports that crime was increasing in the city, which he has been struggling for months to clean up.

A murder, several holdups and other crimes were recorded and Butler took prompt action.

"Kill the bandits," the director of public safety ordered his "finest."

"I am ordering the three platoon shift discontinued temporarily until this crime wave has passed," Butler added. "It is not punishment for the police but necessary to protect the public."

"Having the patrolmen work 12 hours instead of eight will give us several hundred more men on the streets. I work about 16 hours each day, and for a while the officers can stand 12 hours."

The director ordered full investigation into the murder of John Ward, aged 23. Ward was shot to death and his body left lying underneath an abandoned automobile.

Authorities believe Ward was killed in a bootleg feud, as six other men have been killed in the same vicinity within the last 18 months in a bootleggers' war.

A new bob haired flapper robber also is sought. The girl, believed to be about 17 years old, held up a laundry wagon driver and robbed him of $18.

MINNESOTA A POLITICAL ENTITY 75 YEARS AGO

(By United Press)

St. Paul, March 3.—Just 75 years ago today Minnesota embarked on its first adventure as a political subdivision. Congress passed a bill creating the territory of Minnesota March 3, 1849. At the time Minnesota had a population of between 3,000 and 10,000.

It took months to acquaint people of the territory with the news. On April 9, 1849, the first steamer of the spring season came up the river and brought the story to a group of people anxiously awaiting it at St. Paul.

MOCK CAUCUS AND CONVENTION

Held Saturday at Chamber of Commerce Under Auspices of League of Women Voters

SUCCESS FROM EVERY POINT

Attendance, Instruction, Sociability Exemplified at the Afternoon Function

(Contributed)

The mock caucus and convention held at the Chamber of Commerce on Saturday afternoon under the auspices of the League of Women Voters, was a success from the standpoint of attendance, instruction, and sociability. Many of the ladies expressed their appreciation of this opportunity to familiarize themselves with the unfamiliar machinery of the caucus before the holding of the first real caucus, on the evening of March 3.

Miss Jule O'Brien, acting as temporary chairman of the "sixth ward," called the caucus and, being made permanent chairman, proceeded to the election of a clerk and two judges of election. After these officers were elected, they took the oath of office. Although this is not customary, in actual practice, the ceremony added much to the impressiveness of the occasion, just as the ceremony that now attends the final steps in the process of naturalization serves to impress the applicant with the importance of the step he is about to take.

Perhaps it would be well to make the taking of the oath a legal requirement, if it will help to impress our citizens with the importance of performing the simplest of their civic duties—that of voting.

As the voting for delegates was a slow process, requiring registration, swearing in of contested votes, etc., it was feared that there would not be time to organize the convention. So it was decided that if half of those present deposited their votes, it would sufficiently demonstrate the process.

The chairman made it very plain that every ballot that had more names on it than the number allotted to the "sixth ward," would be thrown out. It is interesting to note that, out of forty ballots counted, but one was thrown out for that reason.

When the judges retired to count the vote, Miss Mary Tornstrom proceeded to read the call and organize the convention, and then appointed a committee on credentials and one on platform.

The presentation of the resolutions which constituted the party platform offered an opportunity to inject a little spice into the routine, and this was taken advantage of by presenting a satire on the character of party platforms in general. There was only one serious plank in the platform, and that was a demand for a fifty-fifty representation of women on all county, district state and national delegations.

In a brief lecture on party politics, Miss Tornstrom pointed out that the caucus gave the party machine an opportunity to work its will by presenting voters with previously prepared tickets. She made it clear that no one was obliged to vote such a ticket. He (or she) could demand a blank ballot and write thereon the names of the delegates preferred, or he could take the prepared ballot and scratch out the names he didn't wish to vote for and write in the names of those he did wish elected.

As an instructive demonstration in clean politics, this meeting was valuable, and much credit is due Misses O'Brien and Tornstrom.

Before beginning the political drama, a resolution was passed to write to our congressman and senators asking them to do all in their power to advance the passage of the Child Labor amendment to the constitution, which has just been reported out of committee. This is the single piece of legislation that the League of Women Voters is sponsoring in the present congress.

The vice-chairman, Mrs. E. J. Quinn, presided at this meeting, and, later, presided, with her efficient committee, at the exquisitely appointed and prettily decorated tea table. Judging from the animated groups about this table, and scattered around the room, the light refreshments and the social hour were also thoroughly enjoyed.

MRS. HANNAH ARCHIBALD DIED

Deerwood Matron Well Known to Many in Brainerd, In Failing Health For Year

Mrs. Hannah Archibald, wife of Robert Archibald, of Deerwood, passed away last Tuesday afternoon at Eitel hospital, Minneapolis. She had been in failing health for about a year, and a few weeks ago her strength and vitality gave away, and she sank rapidly, death coming about five o'clock in the afternoon.

Mrs. Archibald was well known to many in Brainerd, as she was very actively interested in a number of county-wide enterprises.

The remains were accompanied from Minneapolis on Thursday by the bereft husband, and by Mr. and Mrs. David Archibald, reaching Deerwood at three o'clock, that day.

Funeral services were held last Friday afternoon at the late home of the deceased and at the Lutheran church, with Rev. J. E. Erlander, pastor of the church, and Rev. Walter A. Fleagle of the M. E. church, officiating. Songs were rendered by Mrs. P. A. Gough, Miss Adele Coffin, E. A. Wasseler and Percy Gough, with Mrs. William Knuppel accompanying on the organ.

All the business places in town were closed during the hour of the funeral and the flag on the school building was lowered at half mast.

The remains were laid at rest in the family burial lot in the Scandia cemetery. Pallbearers were James McCarvill, Anton Torgerson, William Taylor, J. Palmer, A. J. Crone and J. S. Johnson.

The large concourse of friends who were in attendance at the funeral and the immense array of floral offerings bore testimony of the love and high esteem in which the deceased was held. She had lived in Deerwood since pioneer days and in all these years aligned herself with high ideals, laboring incessantly for the better things of life. She was a wife and mother endowed with proud devotion to her family circle; she found time to engage in numerous activities in church and social welfare. In the promotion of the work in the ladies' aids of the Lutheran and Methodist churches, the Civic League (of which organizations she was a charter member), in the Red Cross, Rebekah and S. A. F. lodges, and countless community and social enterprises, her restless energy found expression. The community mourns her passing; to her family the loss is irreparable.

Mrs. Archibald is survived by her husband, five sons, namely: Clarence Olson of Billings, Mont., Douglas, Deerwood; David, Crosby; Edgar, Deerwood; Robert, Milwaukee; also her brother, Olsen Skan, Deerwood; all were present at the funeral. She also has two sisters in Norway and numerous other relatives.

She was 62 years of age, having been born in Norway, January 6, 1862.

SULPHUR IS BEST TO CLEAR UP UGLY SKIN

Any breaking out or skin irritation on face, neck or body is overcome quickest by applying Menthosulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Heroine of "Way of a Man" Experiences Genuine Thrills

Allene Ray, considered one of the most remarkable horsewomen in motion pictures, narrowly escaped serious injury while in Arizona during the filming of the thrilling Pathe feature, "The Way of a Man," adapted from the novel by Emerson Hough, author of "The Covered Wagon," "North of 36," and other western tales.

According to Director George B. Seltz, Miss Ray had been instructed to give a pursuing redskin a thrilling race for life, the scene being taken close to a precipice. After a gruelling ride over the desert, the Texas girl's horse, somewhat exhausted, tripped and fell over a stump, throwing the rider twenty feet. Miss Ray turned a somersault in mid-air, landing on her shoulder and sustaining a number of minor bruises. Following a careful examination, Seltz directed Miss Ray to make motions like going to her hotel, where he hoped she would remain until she felt equal to going on with her discomforting work.

This incident conveys but one of the many trials and tribulations that confronted the large cast of players engaged for the prominent roles in "The Way of a Man," which is being presented at the Lyceum Theatre to-night and Tuesday.

Horchen collapsed after seeing his wife's lifeless body removed from the wreckage.

Heroine of "Way of a Man" Experiences Genuine Thrills

Allene Ray, considered one of the most remarkable horsewomen in motion pictures, narrowly escaped serious injury while in Arizona during the filming of the thrilling Pathe feature, "The Way of a Man," adapted from the novel by Emerson Hough, author of "The Covered Wagon," "North of 36," and other western tales.

According to Director George B. Seitz, Miss Ray had been instructed to give a pursuing redskin a thrilling race for life, the scene being taken close to a precipice. After a cruel-ling ride over the desert, the Texas girl's horse, somewhat exhausted, tripped and fell over a stump, throwing the rider twenty feet. Miss Ray turned a somersault in mid-air, landing on her shoulder and sustaining a number of minor bruises. Following a careful examination, Seitz directed Miss Ray to make motions like going to her hotel, where he hoped she would remain until she felt equal to going on with her discomfiting work.

This incident conveys but one of the many trials and tribulations that confronted the large cast of players engaged for the prominent roles in "The Way of a Man," which is being presented at the Lyceum Theatre tonight and Tuesday.

STUNT PERFORMER FALLS TO DEATH

(By United Press)
San Antonio, Texas, March 3.—Mrs. Bertha Horchen, stunt performer with an airplane circus owned by her husband, was killed here during a circus when a wing of her plane broke while going into a nose dive. She was only about 1,500 feet above ground when the wing broke.

The plane crashed to the earth. A large crowd of spectators out watching the circus had rushed to safety when the plane fell.

Horchen collapsed after seeing his wife's lifeless body removed from the wreckage.

Washington, March 3.—The injunction sought by the Petroleum Oil company restraining Guy G. Frary, state inspector of petroleum products for the state of South Dakota, from making inspection and collecting fees, which was refused by the South Dakota state supreme court, was also refused by the United States supreme court today. Buick Character Makes Buick Value

Buick value is something more than appears on the surface. It is more than the excellence and beauty of Buick design—more than the greater riding comfort, power and safety that Buick provides. Buick's value comes from the sum total of all those Buick qualities and traditions which together make up Buick character. A Buick owner fully appreciates Buick character. He knows the dependable, satisfying and trouble-free transportation which Buick gives, however long or however far, a Buick owner may elect to drive his car.

PATRONIZING HOME INDUSTRY

THE Ways and Means committee of the Chamber of Commerce recently appointed to see what could be done towards increasing the production of local manufacturing, call our attention to the fact that Brainerd is fortunate in having in its midst fourteen manufacturing enterprises to which the average citizen gives but little thought. It is true that the majority of these enterprises are very small and it is due to this fact that the Chamber of Commerce decided that something should be done to stimulate this business.

The Ways and Means committee have gathered considerable data, and although the data is not as yet completed, yet a very conservative estimate shows that our present manufacturing enterprises could and should increase the volume of their business approximately $200,000 annually. The bread industry alone in Brainerd should be doubled by our local bakeries or approximately $50,000 and in doing so would mean the employment of approximately 15 more people than are at present employed in this industry. The cigar manufacturing should be employing not less than 25 as compared with three at present in manufacturing this product. These are the outstanding examples and the public should draw its own conclusions.

Let us demand Brainerd-made products. Brainerd manufacturers and not outsiders are helping to pay for the education of our children. Brainerd manufacturers employ our people. Let us help ourselves. If we don't, no one else will.

The payroll of our present manufacturing establishments can easily be increased $150,000 per year. That would mean more families for our city, more taxes paid and a better town.

FOOT AND MOUTH DISEASE

DR. C. A. NELSON calls the attention of the Dispatch to the dread cattle disease known as foot and mouth disease and the need for farmers to exercise all possible precautions so their cattle may be kept immune. The State Livestock Sanitary board, says Dr. Nelson, has notified all veterinarians that the infection of foot and mouth disease has again appeared in this country, this time in California. Three counties in the vicinity of Oakland and San Francisco are now under strict quarantine and every precaution is being taken by state and federal veterinarians to prevent its spread.

There is always danger of this dreaded disease being spread and carried long distances. The source of the infection is not known at this writing. Veterinarians, county agents and stockmen are warned to be especially alert.

The disease may be carried by shipments of stock, hay or straw used in packing crockery, also by persons having been employed on farms or stockyards in California.

Any information should be wired to the State Livestock Sanitary board and they will send an inspector to make an investigation. All available means should be utilized to keep this devastating disease from invading this part of the country.

Arrangements have been completed near Oakland, California, for destroying approximately 3,000 cattle and 6,000 hogs in five counties in California under hoof and mouth disease quarantine. G. H. Hecke, of the state department of agriculture of California, reported that "the progress of the epidemic appears to have been checked."

Secretary Wallace from Washington has issued orders quarantining Napa, Sonoma, Marin, San Mateo, Santa Clara and San Joaquin counties, California, because of the spread of the foot and mouth disease among cattle.

WHEN THINGS GO WRONG

WHEN things go wrong, as the colloquial expression is, many think as the railway men do, that it will take a run of three accidents before the air is again cleared. In basing so much dependence on a mere superstition about a cycle of three, the psychological attitude is so peculiar as to influence some people.

Many a time in striving to avoid error, after some misfortune, the mind becomes obsessed and actually invites the trouble it is seeking to avoid. The housewife has an old superstition that dropping a dish rag means there will be company in the house that day. Of course, she is all unprepared for company. The house is not as neat as a pin, the larder is almost empty, but as luck will have it, the dish rag is dropped and assure as sin, there is company. But what relationship a dish rag bears to company no one has been able to figure out, unless that the hostess feels as limp as one when the company troops in and takes possession and

PUBLIC LOSES INTEREST IN B. B. SCANDAL

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, March 3.—John A. Heydler, president of the National League, complained with some bitterness recently that some of the fans in the middle-west had not only forgotten the 1919 world's series scandal, but they were in a mood to forgive the players involved when their memory was refreshed.

The action of the jury which heard Joe Jackson's suit against the Chicago White Sox for back pay due on a contract that the club cancelled indicated that sentiment, as represented in the jury box, did not hold Jackson culpable. The other players involved were not on trial.

The judge who presided had charges of perjury preferred against Jackson and Happy Felsch, one of the other players implicated in the scandal and he set aside the verdict of the jury that Jackson was entitled to the money that the contract called for.

The jury apparently acted upon the testimony and the evidence presented and the judge obviously based his action upon the legal aspects of the case. Perhaps the most surprising part of the testimony introduced was that which indicated that Comiskey, the "noble old Roman," knew of the scandal while the series was being played and that he learned that Jackson's name had been mentioned as one of the conspirators, or that his name had been mentioned by the conspirators.

Yet, the testimony indicated, Comiskey offered Jackson a new contract and had him sign it.

If a club owner, considered one of the rocks of the national pastime, thought so little of the stories passed around about one of his ball players that he wanted to take a chance and sign him to a new contract, the fans of the middle-west cannot be censured for taking a rather carefree attitude toward the case and the players involved.

It was rather remarkable, too, that from all the ranks of professional baseball, only Heydler was willing to journey out to Milwaukee and offer his testimony in defense of baseball.

Jackson may never get back into baseball and it is a longshot bet that he will not. He may never get the money that he thinks is coming to him.

But if Jackson was seeking a moral bath at the trial, it would seem that the verdict of the jury washed his face, even if his hands may still be dirty.

NORTHERN PACIFIC BASEBALL CLUB HAS A MEETING

MAKES PREPARATIONS FOR COM-ING SEASON, J. P. ANDERSON
PRESIDING

TREASURER'S REPORT GIVEN
INDICATES FAVORABLE
BALANCE

The Northern Pacific baseball organization held its initial meeting on February 18th to make preparations for the approaching season. J. P. Anderson presided.

Treasurer J. P. Anderson read the financial report of the past year, the report indicating a favorable balance, which was very gratifying, considering the youth of the club. On motion the report was accepted as read.

Officers to head the organization were then elected. J. P. Anderson received the unanimous vote of those present for treasurer. John Elkins was elected manager, J. E. Vanni secretary and David Vanni was appointed umpire for the club.

The new proposed ball park, which will be located between the main line to Duluth and Kindred street fill, was discussed at length and ways and means for financing the same were proposed, announcement of which will be made later.

RUTH, BETTER, TO REPORT WEDNESDAY

Hot Springs, Ark., March 3.—Babe Ruth from his bed at the Majestic hotel here, where he is suffering from an attack of the "flu" declared he was going to leave for the Yankee's training quarters Wednesday.

"I am feeling lots better already and would like to be out riding now," Ruth said, "but the doc thinks I ought to stay in bed one more day."

The news that Ruth was improving was welcomed by the hundreds of visitors at Hot Springs who are interested in the Babe's fight against the flu.

Dr. W. T. Wooton announced the slugging king of baseball was slightly improved with indications for a speedy recovery.

FOR ELIMINATION CONTEST AT BEMIDJI

It is highly probable that in the high school basketball district tournament to be held at Bemidji next Friday and Saturday, Little Falls, Staples, Pine River and Brainerd, will meet at Bemidji for a preliminary elimination tournament, the two winners of which will compete with the Bemidji and St. Cloud teams for the final district representation at the state tournament. Informal negotiations to this effect, it is stated, are now being carried on.

At the district conference held in Brainerd today were Superintendents West of Bemidji, Atwood of Staples, Burquist of Little Falls. It was decided that at the tournament in Bemidji Thursday night Brainerd is to play Little Falls, Staples is to play Pine River.

On Friday the winners will play Bemidji and St. Cloud.

CHAMP, UP AND AROUND, READS OF RELAPSE AND GRINS

New York, March 3.—"Jack Dempsey's ashamed to be seen in a nightgown. That's all that's matter with him. He'll be better than he ever was in another week."

This report from the bedside, where Dempsey was reported with a sliced anatomy and wrecked career, was made late Saturday by Teddy Hayes, secretary and companion of the world's heavyweight champion.

"Dempsey was sitting on the side of the bed in the hospital today when he read in the papers that he had suffered a relapse and was in a serious condition, that he had been operated on for a bad hernia and never would be able to fight again. He had a good laugh and said if they wanted to bury him now, he'd hate to get really sick on their hands," Hayes said.

The champion, according to his secretary, was up today and walked around the hospital visiting several of his sick neighbors.

Dempsey is feeling well enough to receive his friends but he is sticking to a resolution to "let none of the boys see me in this nightgown."

The champion knew that it would annoy the hospital attendants if he received too many visitors and he decided that if he couldn't see all of his friends, he would receive none of them.

The operation, according to Dr. Robert E. Brennan, who performed it, was for a fistula and hemorrhoids, not for hernia.

"Dempsey will be out of the hospital in a week or 10 days and he will be in condition to defend his title early in the spring if he wants to," the physician said late today.

He repeated previous declarations that the operation has been a success and that Dempsey's condition was more than satisfactory.

"Jack ought to be better the next time he fights than he ever has been," Hayes said.

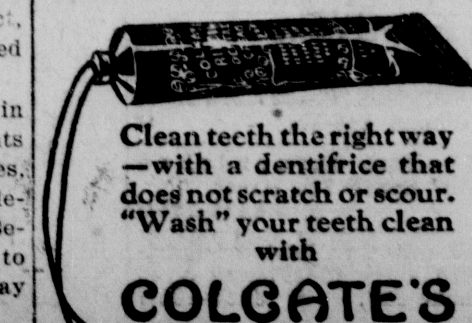

"He was bothered in his training for the Gibbons and Firpo fights last

WORLD'S RECORD FOR POLE VAULT

Urbana, Ill., March 3.—One world's record was broken and new marks for this carnival set in other events in the seventh annual indoor relay carnival at the University of Illinois. Lyman Brown, Minnesota, won the 1,500 meter event and set a new mark for the carnival. He ran the distance in 4:8 2-5. The old record was 4:13 1-5, set by Krogh, Chicago, last year.

Dean Brownell, of Illinois, broke the world's indoor record in the pole vault when he went 12 feet 10 5-8 inches. The old mark of 12 feet 3-4 inches was set by Merrick of Wisconsin in 1922.

Wabash college ran the medley relay in 8 minutes 27 seconds, breaking the record of 8 minutes, 44 seconds set by Central college, 1923.

Kinsey of Illinois tied the record of 9 2-5 seconds made by Earl Thompson of Dartmouth in the 75 yard high hurdles.

Hubbard of Michigan raised his own record of last year 23 feet 11 3-4 inches in the broad jump when he leaped 24 feet 7 inches.

Western state Normals one mile team broke the one mile college relay record for the carnival in three minutes and 31 1-5 seconds. The old mark of 3 minutes 34 seconds was made by Wabash college in 1923.

Hall, running the last mile of the four mile university relay, the feature of the carnival, sprinted away from Wikoff of Ohio, on the stretch and won by 10 yards.

Paul W. Jones, DePauw university, won the all-around championship with a total of 5,136 1/2 points in the first event of the carnival. Wisconsin placed second when Hammann took a total of 5,044 points. Karl Schjoll, Minnesota, was seventh.

WHEN THINGS GO WRONG

WHEN things go wrong, as the colloquial expression is, many think as the railway men do, that it will take a run of three accidents before the air is again cleared. In basing so much dependence on a mere superstition about a cycle of three, the psychological attitude is so peculiar as to influence some people.

Many a time in striving to avoid error, after some misfortune, the mind becomes obsessed and actually invites the trouble it is seeking to avoid. The housewife has an old superstition that dropping a dish rag means there will be company in the house that day. Of course, she is all unprepared for company. The house is not as neat as a pin, the larder is almost empty, but as luck will have it, the dish rag is dropped and assure as sin, there is company. But what relationship a dish rag bears to company no one has been able to figure out, unless that the hostess feels as limp as one when the company troops in and takes possession and

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, March 3.—John A. Heydler, president of the National League, complained with some bitterness recently that some of the fans in the middle-west had not only forgotten the 1919 world's series scandal, but they were in a mood to forgive the players involved when their memory was refreshed. The action of the jury which heard Joe Jackson's suit against the Chicago White Sox for back pay due on a contract that the club cancelled indicated that sentiment, as represented in the jury box, did not hold Jackson culpable. The other players involved were not on trial.

The judge who presided had charges of perjury preferred against Jackson and Happy Felsch, one of the other players implicated in the scandal and he set aside the verdict of the jury that Jackson was entitled to the money that the contract called for.

The jury apparently acted upon the testimony and the evidence presented and the judge obviously based his action upon the legal aspects of the case. Perhaps the most surprising part of the testimony introduced was that which indicated that Comiskey, the "noble old Roman," knew of the scandal while the series was being played and that he learned that Jackson's name had been mentioned as one of the conspirators, or that his name had been mentioned by the conspirators.

Yet, the testimony indicated, Comiskey offered Jackson a new contract and had him sign it.

If a club owner, considered one of the rocks of the national pastime, thought so little of the stories passed around about one of his ball players that he wanted to take a chance and sign him to a new contract, the fans of the middle-west cannot be censured for taking a rather careless attitude toward the case and the players involved.

It was rather remarkable, too, that from all the ranks of professional baseball, only Heydler was willing to journey out to Milwaukee and offer his testimony in defense of baseball.

Jackson may never get back into baseball and it is a longshot bet that he will not. He may never get the money that he thinks is coming to him.

But if Jackson was seeking a moral bath at the trial, it would seem that the verdict of the jury washed his face, even if his hands may still be dirty.

NORTHERN PACIFIC
BASEBALL CLUB
HAS A MEETINGMAKES PREPARATIONS FOR COM-ING SEASON, J. P. ANDERSON
PRESIDINGTREASURER'S REPORT GIVEN
INDICATES FAVORABLE
BALANCE

The Northern Pacific baseball organization held its initial meeting on February 18th to make preparations for the approaching season. J. P. Anderson presided.

Treasurer J. P. Anderson read the financial report of the past year, the report indicating a favorable balance, which was very gratifying, considering the youth of the club. On motion the report was accepted as read.

Officers to head the organization were then elected. J. P. Anderson received the unanimous vote of those present for treasurer. John Elkins was elected manager, J. E. Vanni secretary and David Vanni was appointed umpire for the club.

The new proposed ball park, which will be located between the main line to Duluth and Kindred street fill, was discussed at length and ways and means for financing the same were proposed, announcement of which will be made later.

RUTH, BETTER, TO REPORT WEDNESDAY

Hot Springs, Ark., March 3.—Babe Ruth from his bed at the Majestic hotel here, where he is suffering from an attack of the "flu" declared he was going to leave for the Yankee's training quarters Wednesday.

"I am feeling lots better already and would like to be out riding now," Ruth said, "but the doc thinks I ought to stay in bed one more day."

The news that Ruth was improving was welcomed by the hundreds of visitors at Hot Springs who are interested in the Babe's fight against the flu.

Dr. W. T. Wooten announced the slugging king of baseball was slightly improved with indications for a speedy recovery.

FOR ELIMINATION
CONTEST AT BEMIDJI

It is highly probable that in the high school basketball district tournament to be held at Bemidji next Friday and Saturday, Little Falls, Staples, Pine River and Brainerd, will meet at Bemidji for a preliminary elimination tournament, the two winners of which will compete with the Bemidji and St. Cloud teams for the final district representation at the state tournament. Informal negotiations to this effect, it is stated, are now being carried on.

At the district conference held in Brainerd today were Superintendents West of Bemidji, Atwood of Staples, Burquist of Little Falls. It was decided that at the tournament in Bemidji Thursday night Brainerd is to play Little Falls, Staples is to play Pine River.

On Friday the winners will play Bemidji and St. Cloud.

CHAMP, UP AND AROUND, READS OF
RELAPSE AND GRINS

New York, March 3.—"Jack Dempsey's ashamed to be seen in a nightgown. That's all that's matter with him. He'll be better than he ever was in another week."

This report from the bedside, where Dempsey was reported with a sliced anatomy and wrecked career, was made late Saturday by Teddy Hayes, secretary and companion of the world's heavyweight champion.

"Dempsey was sitting on the side of the bed in the hospital today when he read in the papers that he had suffered a relapse and was in a serious condition, that he had been operated on for a bad hernia and never would be able to fight again. He had a good laugh and said if they wanted to bury him now, he'd hate to get really sick on their hands," Hayes said.

The champion, according to his secretary, was up today and walked around the hospital visiting several of his sick neighbors.

Dempsey is feeling well enough to receive his friends but he is sticking to a resolution to "let none of the boys see me in this nightgown."

The champion knew that it would annoy the hospital attendants if he received too many visitors and he decided that if he couldn't see all of his friends, he would receive none of them.

The operation, according to Dr. Robert E. Brennan, who performed it, was for a fistula and hemorrhoids, not for hernia.

"Dempsey will be out of the hospital in a week or 10 days and he will be in condition to defend his title early in the spring if he wants to," the physician said late today.

He repeated previous declarations that the operation has been a success and that Dempsey's condition was more than satisfactory.

"Jack ought to be better the next time he fights than he ever has been," Hayes said.

"He was bothered in his training for the Gibbons and Firpo fights last

CITY PRECINCT CAUCUSES TONIGHT

Important Week in Local and State
Republican Circles Opens
Today

FOLLOWS WITH CONVENTIONS

Caucus Tonight Will Select 88
Delegates to the County Convention

This is an important week in local and state Republican circles. Beginning this evening with precinct caucuses and continuing with the county district and state conventions, with the ultimate purpose of selecting delegates to the national Republican convention which convenes in Cleveland, Ohio, on June 10th.

The Republican caucuses will be held in each ward of the city of Brainerd, in the usual voting places, this evening, beginning at seven o'clock. The law requires that the polls must be open for at least one hour, and must not be kept open later than nine o'clock.

These caucuses are for the purpose of selecting delegates to the county convention and each ward in the city will select the following number of delegates:

First ward—3 delegates.
Second ward—11 delegates.
Third ward—3 delegates.
Fourth ward—2 delegates.
Fifth ward—4 delegates.

The number of delegates from each ward is based upon the Republican vote for governor in 1920, one delegate being allowed for each fifty votes or fraction thereof. Each voter will cast his or her vote for as many delegates as the ward in which he lives is entitled to.

The caucuses tonight will select 88 delegates to the county convention which will be held in the court house in Brainerd on Wednesday, March 5th. This county convention elects twelve delegates to the district convention, also to be held in Brainerd on Friday, March 7th. There will be 117 delegates attending this district convention.

The county convention on Wednesday selects twelve delegates to the state convention, which in turn elects seven delegates at large to the national convention at Cleveland, in addition to two delegates to be chosen from each congressional district.

Republican voters are asked to make a special effort to get out this evening in their respective wards and vote for the number of delegates allowed from each precinct.

Many voters have forgotten the call which was published about three weeks ago in the Dispatch. The law requires that the call be published twenty days before the caucus, and many have been awaiting another official announcement, which is not provided for by law.

Brainerd's Heart Fund campaign will be formally launched this evening at the Chamber of Commerce dinner of all civic groups at 6:15 o'clock.

The chairmen of various committees announced this morning that their group was all primed for a snappy, put-it-over-the-first-day campaign.

"It is well to be enthusiastic and everything indicate that the enthusiasm on this campaign is warranted," said members of the steering committee this morning, "but it is not good to accept enthusiasm as a substitute for action, and this evening we are going to ask every campaign worker to complete their assigned campaign duty by Tuesday evening. We are going to ask them to enter the task with a determination to make Brainerd's Heart Fund for the Salvation Army the greatest, finest recognition yet of the merits of that organization's fine work."

Heart "Army" Will Attack City
Over fifty of Brainerd's leading business men and club women will attack Brainerd tomorrow armed with "We Did Invest in Humanity" posters and subscription blanks. The big eight-foot heart will indicate how fast the fund mounts.

If the entire campaign force starts promptly at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, the campaign will be over the top by noon, and the heart will be "All Red," was the prediction at campaign headquarters in the Chamber of Commerce this morning.

Everything depends on the workers, and how quickly they complete their jobs. Everyone knows how dangerous it is to let a campaign lag and the effort will be made this evening at the "send-off" dinner to get every worker to promise a completion of their task Tuesday.

MINNESOTA POWER & LIGHT COMPANY

Makes Proposition to Local People and Adopts the Customer Ownership Plan

SMALL INVESTORS CHANCE

Tax Free Features, Cumulative Preferred Shares Offered Customers and Local Residents

This interview was given the Dispatch by the Minnesota Power & Light Company.

Of unusual interest to local people is today's announcement by the Minnesota Power & Light Company of the first offering of its cumulative preferred shares to its customers and other local residents.

This announcement states that everyone may become interested in this business by investing their savings, either in small or large amounts, in these cumulative preferred shares, which, as stated by the corporation, pay dividends every three months amounting to $7 a share each year, bringing an income of more than 7 1/2 per cent on the money invested.

Knowing that a large number will want to take advantage of such an exceptional investment opportunity, the Company is selling these shares for cash and on a most liberal partial payment plan. Payments as low as $10 a month will be accepted, it is stated.

This places these shares within the reach of everyone.

The stock is free from city, county and state taxes in Minnesota and the income from the investment is free from the present normal Federal Income Tax.

"There is a general disposition on the part of power and light companies to encourage local investment to provide a portion of capital requirements and to promote a relation of mutual interest between the company and the consumer," said an official of the Minnesota Power & Light Company yesterday.

"Customer ownership, at the present time is growing rapidly all over the United States, and over two hundred electric power and light companies in the United States are now selling their securities to their customers and employees.

"The securities of power and light companies are today the favorites of the thoughtful and careful investor, not only because of the excellent record of this class of securities as a whole, but because of the fact that the investing public has come to appreciate that these securities are no longer the speculative flotations of the adventurous promoter and the frenzied financier in a new industry of doubtful experiments and unknown possibilities, but rather the securities of an industry well established, supplying essential needs, financed strictly on an investment and not a speculative basis, and operating under laws that afford reasonable assurance of protection.

"The management of Minnesota Power & Light Company believes that the local people who support the company and who operate it, are the logical ones to own this stock and to receive the dividends which will be distributed. In this way they, too, will share in its success.

"These shares are not something for rich people only. Folks who have only a hundred dollars can invest in our stock on exactly the same basis and enjoy the same rights

"Anyone who would like to invest his savings will find these shares the answer to the question 'where can I put my savings so that they will be SAFE and still earn over 7 1/2 per cent for me?'"

"A very important feature of our customer ownership plan is that the company will maintain a resale department at its offices for the benefit of local stockholders who may wish to sell their shares.

"Every employee of our company is authorized to take orders for the stock.

"More than 90 per cent of the employees of the Minnesota Power & Light Company have already purchased these shares, which is the best indication of how our own workers feel about this stock as a safe investment."

The stock is free from city, county and state taxes in Minnesota and the income from the investment is free from the present normal Federal Income Tax.

"There is a general disposition on the part of power and light companies to encourage local investment to provide a portion of capital requirements and to promote a relation of mutual interest between the company and the consumer," said an official of the Minnesota Power & Light Company yesterday.

"Customer ownership, at the present time is growing rapidly all over the United States, and over two hundred electric power and light companies in the United States are now selling their securities to their customers and employees.

"The securities of power and light companies are today the favorites of the thoughtful and careful investor, not only because of the excellent record of this class of securities as a whole, but because of the fact that the investing public has come to appreciate that these securities are no longer the speculative flotations of the adventurous promoter and the frenzied financier in a new industry of doubtful experiments and unknown possibilities, but rather the securities of an industry well established, supplying essential needs, financed strictly on an investment and not a speculative basis, and operating under laws that afford reasonable assurance of protection.

"The management of Minnesota Power & Light Company believes that the local people who support the company and who operate it, are the logical ones to own this stock and to receive the dividends which will be distributed. In this way they, too, will share in its success.

"These shares are not something for rich people only. Folks who have only a hundred dollars can invest in our stock on exactly the same basis and enjoy the same rights

Minnesota Power & Light Company supplies those great NECESSITIES of everyday life—ELECTRIC POWER and ELECTRIC LIGHT.

This Company is now operating the electric light and power business in an extensive territory in Eastern and Northern Minnesota, including Duluth, Chisholm, Eveleth, Ely, Cloquet and forty other communities, and in Superior, Wisconsin.

The Minnesota Power & Light Company has adopted the same policy followed by practically all other large modern utility companies—that of inviting customers and other local people to become Preferred Stockholders in the Company. Under this arrangement the money which the Company pays as Preferred Stock Dividends every three months will be paid to local people. The Minnesota Power & Light Company feels that local people are the logical ones to receive this money—they support the Company and should share in its success.

This will be of mutual advantage. When you are a stockholder you will gain by receiving dividends from a well established business with a steadily growing demand for its service. The Company will gain from you a more cordial interest in its affairs and a better understanding of what a well managed public utility company means to the life and future growth of the territory served.

You don't need to pay for your share all at once $10 is all you need to start with.

Note These Special Advantages and Protective Features:

2. Cumulative. This stock is cumulative, therefore the Company must pay the dividends in full, before one penny of dividends can be paid to the Second Preferred and Common Stockholders.

3. Preferred as to Assets and Dividends. Besides having preference in regard to dividends, this stock is preferred as to assets and the Company must pay you, in case of liquidation, $100.00 and accrued dividend for each share of Preferred Stock before anything can be paid to Second Preferred and Common Stockholders.

4. Resale Department. The Company maintains a resale department at its offices for the benefit of local stockholders who may wish to sell their shares.

5. Redeemable. For every share you own you will receive $110.00 and accrued dividend in case the Company should wish to redeem this stock. The Company must give you 30 days notice if it desires to do this.

6. Fully Paid and Non-Assessable. The stock is issued as fully paid with the express covenant of the Company that it shall not be subject to assessment.

7. Voting Rights. Each share of this stock has equal voting rights with the Second Preferred and Common Stocks.

8. Tax Free Features. If you live in Minnesota you will not have to pay any personal property taxes on the money you invest in this stock. Also, you will not have to pay the present normal Federal Income Tax on the income, or money you will receive as dividends, from this investment.
